TRANSPORTATIONS

1. Songthaew or Road-Daeng

(Red Taxi or Red Truck) is the most common and preferred mode of local transportation in Chiang Mai. The fares vary by distance, starting from 30 baht.

2. Taxi

There is air-conditioned Taxi in Chiang Mai but their numbers are small. These taxis do not cruise the streets – they are waiting at the airport, railway station, bus station, malls, and hotels. Taxi fare is by the meter and it costs around 100 to 300 bath per ride in the city.

3. Tuk Tuk

Everyone knows about Thailand's tuk-tuk – they are quick, noisy, they go everywhere, and depending on your bargaining skill, they are inexpensive. Tuk-tuk is the second most common mode of transport in Chiang Mai. Compare to songthaew, tuk-tuk is more expensive. Rate starts at 60 baht for a short trip and 100 to 150 baht for longer distance.

4. GRAB (ride-sharing app) in Chiang Mai

Mobile ride-sharing app, GRAB is probably the most convenient way (for public transport) to travel around Chiang Mai. In fact, the fare is often cheaper than a regular taxi service if you follow the latest COUPON code (which is so frequently available).

5. Bus

The public bus service is not popular in Chiang Mai. There is shuttle bus covering 2 routes connecting the airport to the city. The fare is 40 baht per person. There are also bus and minibus go around the city. The fares are 15-20 baht.
